Mr. Robert Mitchell, Principal

Mr. Less Fekete, Vice Principal

Mr. Tom Johnston, Vice Principal

Dear Students:

The pages of this yearbook faithfully depict the passing scene at Catholic Central. The cycle of another academic year brings back many memories, some undoubtedly bittersweet but all treasured for the friendships made, the lessons learned and the growth and development attained. It is our hope that your year has been a good one and we wish you continued success and happiness for the future.

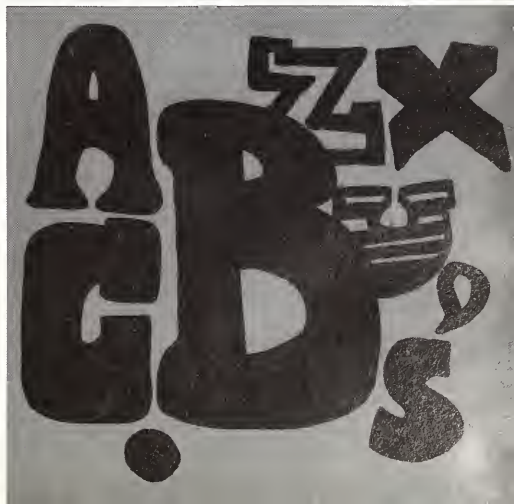

To the graduating class go our special wishes for fulfillment and accomplishment in the years ahead. It has been our duty and responsibility not only to nurture your academic development but to give you an appreciation of your civic and spiritual responsibilities. While our success cannot be measured at this time we feel confident that with God's help and your continued perseverance you will not only achieve much but will serve as worthy examples to succeeding classes of C.C.H. students.

On behalf of the entire Faculty I feel privileged in being able to congratulate you and to wish you well.

Sincerely,

Robert Mitchell

PLEASE SHOW TO
ALL TEACHERS

Jennifer Adamson
Jen wishes to be public relations manager for Rodger Dattray, have a passionate affair at an Aspen ski resort and "trap" him into marrying her. But before Jen does anything, she has to finish paying off her car and pass Calculus. Good luck!

Pamela Adamson
PJ has three main goals in life: to be rich, Jewish and go on a European shopping spree . . . don't we all wish! She'll try to tell you she has a twin sister, but let me tell ya, it takes a lot of convincing. Have fun in the operating rooms!

Mark Alessio
Mark? Where art thou Mark? Ist thee in the yonder, one floor above everyone else?! Mark is an amazing B-ball player. His future plans are to replace Jabbar as centre for the L.A. Lakers. We'll always remember Mark for his trademark haircut, and his excellent role in the school show.

Mark Amszej
Mark likes working with prefabricated food. First Wendy's, now McPig's. He likes making sarcastic comments and doing Algebra. Mark plans to be an engineer, only to join the newspaper staff. Good luck, Mark. We hope you find engineering as entertaining as CHE 551 with Mr. Kellett.

Mariella Anderson
Mar's favorite pastimes are house parties at Medway Hall, and "meeting" respectable university MEN. Mariella will always be remembered for the dress she fell out of at the '83 prom. Her aspirations include going back to Florida to become a perma-beach bum. Hang loose, Mar! (We know she will)

Gerard Baetens
Gerard's many contributions to CCH include track and cross country, but more importantly, he is a habitual party goer, and participant in cafeteria card games. Gerard's future plans include breaking the world record in the 800m and retiring permanently along the beaches of Florida.

Angela Baker
Ange, better known as Christine Brinkley, hopes to find a nice wealthy Western man or two to escort her around campus next year. Angela's favourite football team is WCFT, and she can hardly wait til they go pro!

Angela Barr
Angie loves to party and have a good time. Remember Medway, Angie? She's into diet coke, cinamon trident, Halston perfume, and black teddies (don't ask). We wish you all the best, but those purple leotards simply must go!

Gabriel Bartley
Gabby is in the music program at CCH. She remembers her best time at CCH, which wasn't at CCH, but rather in NY City when the band went down last year . . . but we didn't realize you could do such things in Central Park!

Gary Benjaminsen
Gary has come back one more time, just to "find himself", and play B-ball, and, of course, flirt with grade 11 girls. Gary went skiing on the March break, in Vermont . . . but he never did tell us what went on in that condominium . . .

Greg Bidinosti

When Greg isn't in a pool playing waterpolo, he is probably outside catching the sun's rays. Bidder's tall lean frame can be seen spiking spiking and dribbling on the courts. Greg plans to play Olympic Water Polo and eat muffins and party for the rest of his life. Sounds like a good time.

Kelly Blyndal

Kelly has wonderful plans for CCH . . . a pink ski hill built where the portables now stand, and a free bar at the bottom. Our resident social butterfly would like to paint all lockers pink. She will be remembered for being the head of the prom committee, and making the boys blush when she talked to them

Roberta Bonaccini

Roberta's best times at CCH were spares, and Chem 551. Roberta plans to be a travel counsellor, and eventually embezzle enough money to see the world. Roberta's final wish will be to have her ashes sprinkled all over 20,000 army men at the Bob Hope Christmas Special . . . Yea, OK . . .

Steve Bonario

Steve acquired his job as knightrider editor, and embezzled the entire budget to go on a trip to Europe. That's why he missed so much school . . . and you thought he had mononucleosis! Steve was also involved in very top secret plans to assassinate Mr. Becze.

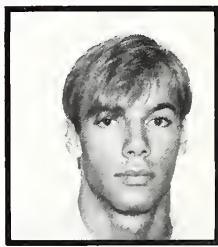

Diana Bonelli

Diana enjoys parties at Patty V's and having spares . . . but religion class . . . well, that's another story. I guess we all have to catch up on our lost sleep sooner or later, right Di? Well, we wish you luck in all you do.

Jeff Broderick

Jeff has just joined us from central, and didn't quite know his way around at first. He recalls asking the secretaries in the main office where the East Wing Gym was. They said they didn't know. Have fun, Jeff, but stay away from those fetal pigs!

Mike Brock

Mike can be found in the halls at CCH looking for clues to the most recent mystery . . . who kidnapped Mr. Becze? Mike's dad teaches at CCH this year . . . must be nice not having to take the yellow bus every morning, eh, Mike?

Mary Catherine Brunton

Mary has been with the music department at CCH since she can remember. She thinks that Muri gets nicer every year, or maybe Mary Catherine is hallucinating from getting up so early in the morning for practices.

Donna Brus

Donna is a very cheerful grade thirteen, as compared to most of us who are in a rut. I think she's one of the only ones who didn't fall asleep all year in Mrs. Collette's Per C English class. Good luck at the big U next year!

Goran Burcul

GB likes Triumph. He also likes his bike. He could be seen many times first semester, just hangin' out in the parking lot . . . what were you waiting for out there anyway, GB? I guess he just got tired of standing by the window in the WW dining lounge

Eileen Buren

Eileen is your regular all-round funny girl . . . always joking around. And, boy, can she throw a party when Mom and Dad are gone! Eileen plans to go on to further her education, but we think she's going to become a construction worker with Daddy.

Mark Burgess

Mark likes to sing, dance, act . . . you name it, he can do it! He can even play the bagpipes! He first got interested in it when his mom used to send his lunch in plaid paper bags. Mark also wants to make the kilt mandatory uniform for male and female students at CCH.

Murray Burns

Mur's favourite things about CC are the prefects. Murray loves Connie, but better still, he loves his Porsche and his six bugs. Mur's muscles are magnificent, and his moustache is monstrous. Honestly, Burns, shave that thing off! Mur's Future plans include the Argus Corp., and Capitalistic financial heights . . .

Martha Burns

Martha has just joined us this year from Central. She remembers the first CCH party she threw. People were dancing so much that she had to replace the carpet before her parents got back from vacation. We hope you've enjoyed your flight on CCH airlines. Please leave out the back door.

Jim Butterly

Jim can always be located up in the YB office lounging with a cup of tea, and toast with jam. Jim was in the school show this year, and was a member of the rowing team. We hope to see Jumbo at Western next year, but if not, there's always a full time job at Woolco. Jim always wears his yellow mac in the pouring rain.

Anne Byrne

Anne prefers the boys from Central, and enjoys shopping at LeChateau. She is living proof that the CCH uniform can have many variations. Anne also prefers not being called Claire . . . Look out, she gets nasty about it! Good luck, Anne.

Claire Byrne

Claire has been on the track and cross country teams here at CCH. She recalls her best time at CCH as the party on top of the Board of Governor's office. Her idols are Mrs. Geromette and Paul Eckoff. Claire doesn't like being called Anne, either.

Angela Byrne

Angie is a very intense debater. If you don't believe it, tell her she isn't and she'll convince you. Angela didn't like the uniform at CCH, and because of her individualistic tendencies, she rebelled against it! Good Woman! Good luck, Angela, we know you'll go far.

Alan Cahalan

"Don't touch my moustache!" Alan's pride and joy lies on top of his mouth, and if you know what's good for you, you'd stay away! Al is a regular in attendance at Award's night every year. In fact, he wants to come back for grade fourteen, just to make it six years straight.

Teresa Calzonetti

Teresa is a very busy girl - she is Miss Involved '84. Her music along with her dance is very important to her. Classy? You bet! We wish her luck in the future.

Geordie Campbell
Geordie is your regular East Wing Dining lounge groupie. He doesn't hang around the school more than he has to, he doesn't want to reach the mentally deranged capacity he feels the crowd in the EWDL would bring him to. Good luck in the future.

Desiree Campeau
This wild and crazy person can be seen trying to steal parking spaces in the CC High lot before anyone else can. We think that Desiree is going to become a nutritionist in Africa . . . she's into depression.

Anna Cardelli
Anna enjoys languages, and usually ends up teaching the teachers a thing or two. Anna enjoys the leisurely life of A, D, and E spare. You'd almost think she'd have some free time, but with Frank for calculus, we think not! Good luck in the future, Anna.

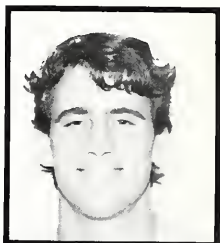

Hilario Carlos
"To be or not to be" is the question. "I want to be like Tony Dorsett" is the answer . . . Makes sense? of course not, but neither did Hilario's questionnaire. His favorite thing about CCH was Algebra class when Mr. Elsie would tell the garbage can to be quiet.

James Carpenter
"Cunningham's" prime ambition in life is to fill his address book with the names of many women, but we think he'll be a Mother's Pizzeria manager in Africa. His idol is Captain James T. Kirk, and we hope that some day Scotty will "beam Jim up".

Brett Carron
Brett is a smart guy, even though he does play football. His wit and sarcasm abound, and we feel he will either become a vaudeville comedian, a priest or an artsie. Our knowledge of him favours the latter.

Diego Chambers
Diego makes the most of a situation with his amazingly dry humour. He plans to someday help Miss Marcotte save us all from being nuked. You see, Diego appreciates life, simply because it gives him a chance to argue. We like Diego when he is awake, but we like "Diego Sleeping" much better.

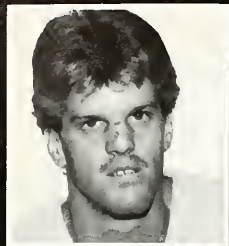

John Chambers
John is related to Diego, but you'd never know it. John likes math, and actually attends Algebra class, even on the days we had spares! He figures he's paying $85.00 for something. He's starting to believe that garbage cans can talk . . . too much partying on the weekends, John?

Dennis Chan
Dennis has an IQ equal to the sum of the IQs of the senior Football team. We don't know much about Dennis, he's rather "low profile" (Quote borrowed from T. Kellert) All we can be sure of is that he's from a country far away . . . Dennis will probably become a nuclear physicist (who got 99% in Physics 551?)

Clare Chen
Clare is still trying to figure out all of the people at CCH, but soon plans on reaching higher realms of study, anyway. Clare told us on her 13 questionnaire, that her pet peeve is "a dog" . . . well now, that is certainly an original!

Chris Clancy

Chris is a regular type of guy who likes to have a good time with all of his buddies . . . don't we all? We hope that Chris has lots of fun with his buddies before he has to get a job, and settle down, and earn a decent living . . . life isn't all peaches, cream, and Miller, Chris. Wake up and smell the coffee.

Laurie Clifford

Laurie's involvements at CCH are many, the Who's Who, Band and Crusaders in action Club are just a few. Her future will hopefully lie in pharmacy, but we envision Laurie becoming a tractor driver on a coffee plantation in Brazil.

Jacky Cloudt

Jacky spent most of her years at CCH socializing in the pit and deciding whether or not to go to class. We think Jacky will end up either a social worker in California, or an auxiliary member of the David Bowie Fan Club.

Paul Cookson

Paul is the last in a series of four Cookson redhead brothers. Just as we thought the school was losing the Cookson tradition, along comes another, a girl. I don't think Paul has figured out his life yet, but he loves CCH so much he'll probably stick around another year just to buy his sister and raise the living dead with Phil.

Mary Crowe

"Mare's" favourite things about CCH are the pit, Chicken burgers, and Ken! In that order. She hopes some day to marry a doctor and have ten kids. Her best memory of CCH was the prom, as she went with her idol, David Bowie. She reports that they had a good time. Sorry, Ken.

Vicki Curcio

Vicki's only ambition is to acquire a one-way ticket to Daytona Beach. If she fails to achieve this, her secondary plans are to hire the male sector of UWU to assist her in BIO 551. Vic wishes to make it big in the fashion world but at the present time Vic keeps a low profile, with rare appearances at school.

Elizabeth Currado

Liz can be seen participating in very deep intellectual conversations practically every morning in the WW Cafeteria. Liz was deeply moved by VD's WRE551 class. (How touching!) Seriously Liz's most memorable aspect of CCH was either the male population or the uniform. (Take your pick.)

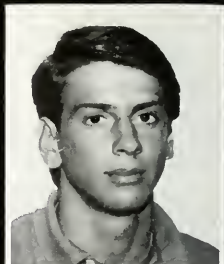

Sandi Cutsey

Sandi is the original Mr. Meyer Fan Club Prez. He actually made fetal pigs tolerable. Sandi has done some photography and articles for the Knight rider, and has also contributed to school spirit simply by being her bubbly little self!

Peter Cocurullo

Kook is an all around wild and crazy guy. Pete's favorite day is Saturday, for the morning cartoons, and he's a very stylish dresser - his mother is always asking where her dresses are. Pete loves Florida, Beer, Heather, respectively.

Dan Crandles

Dano is a member of the Willy O'D Fan Club here at CCH. His major involvement in school has been in the music program, but he's been a class rep, and a critical spectator as well. He's going to miss making fun of Tony Kasza, but he certainly won't miss Band Practice.

Anna D'Arrioso

Anna gives a new meaning to the word "perky". Anna plans to travel to Quebec this summer and "experience" the French culture (I bet Anna!) Ms. Biology was born with her voice two octaves above everyone else's and can be heard screeching in Willy O'D's Phys 551 class. Anna is our resident prep (she can always tell you when Tiffany's is having a sale on Ralph Lauren polos) and will always be remembered for her spiffy sayings. See Clea Tubular . . . fur sure Anna!!

Ilda DaFonseca

Ilda has enjoyed her years here at CCH, but more so, Ilda enjoyed COR. Right Ilda? One thing is for sure . . . that she won't miss the lunch hour police, and people who don't buy who's whos.

Rosanna Dalpos

Rosanna and Rita are CCH's version of the Bobsey Twins. These two never seem to run out of things to say to one another.

Jamie Damaren

Jamie loves basketball, and has played on the senior team during his years here. He certainly enjoys his distinction as the tallest one in our class (apologies to any oversights) Next year, Jamie hopes to be at Fanshawe. We wish ya luck, Jamie.

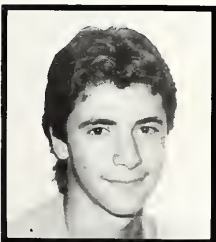

Caroline De Luca

Caroline is a very intelligent person. NOW, the question is: does she get her great marks through brains, or has she connections that we don't have?

Anna Maria Decicco

Annie Marie is the fiery red-head who was on crutches for a great deal of her years at CCH. Annie plans to attend college and sees broadcasting or journalism in her future. Annie is loyal and hard-working and will definitely get somewhere in life. So you better not get in her way. Go get 'em Annie!

Frank Dedato

Frankie loves to play soccer, he also loves the female gender. Frankie alias BING sings like a bird with the four lovely BONG sisters.

Christina Del Re

Cris plans to go to Western next year, but would love to spend all her summers tanning on the beaches of Europe. (keep dreaming Cris). You can usually find Cris hanging out in the YB Office trying to look important. Good luck, Cris, but we know you'll succeed in all you do!

Mirella DeLuca

Mirella has been declared a permanent fixture over at Mr. Submarine's. Once in awhile, she appears at school for classes.

Claudette Denome

Claudette enjoys shopping at Layman House, and school dances . . . well, maybe not the ones this year. She feels the school isn't crowded, she says she feels right at home . . . where she has wall to wall brothers and sisters. Who's applying for OSAP?

Mark Dobell

Mark is really into "combat", and that's why he can be seen around the halls of CCH fighting off girls with a stick. Notice it's a new one every week? We hope Mark has a wonderful time doing whatever he does.

JoAnne DePace

J reached her all-time low during spring break. CHILL-OUT! J's future plans include becoming president of Coor's Brewing Company. JoAnne's epitaph will read JKW. Watch out for those Mississauga boys J!!!

Maria DePace

"Mucci" has one main goal in life - to grow. Her favourite pastime is stacking pillows on the driver's seat in order that she may see over the dash. Maria hopes that one day she may be able to buy a car designed for short people - "Go ahead, laugh".

Jackie Devereaux

Jackie likes CCH, but the Western hunks appeal more to her than the fellows at CC. Oh well, they'll become Western hunks soon enough, and you can start talking to them again. Jackie is always smiling, except on Mondays when she sleeps through class because of the mega weekends.

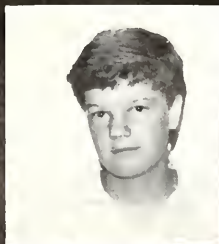

Alan Dietrich

Alan will certainly be remembered for his contribution of the truck for the Santa Claus Parade floats in previous years. Al likes trucks, country music, cowboy hats, beer, and Troy's burgundy Dodge Dart - Beauty! Good luck to you, Al.

Kathleen Donovan

Kathleen enjoys skating and dancing, and when time allows, she can be found at the nearest mud wrestling arena. She has donated many profound statements to Mrs. Collette's English classes, but we will always remember her as the girl with the mini-skirt.

Jennifer Derbyshire

As head cheerleader, Jen can be seen and heard at the sidelines of male sport games. Derby's best times at CCH were spent down at the Budapest with SC, PL, and CG. Jen plans to unravel the secret of Mrs Berthody's teaching and pass functions. Actually, she wants to be a nurse in Ottawa.

Jacqueline Deziel

After Jackie finishes school this year, she plans to hire a hitman and "pay back" her mom for sending her to CH (What a true Crusader). Jackie is credited with having an almost perfect attendance record, something very rare for a grade thirteen!

Donato Diponio

Better known as D2 (Donato) is new teen idol to girls in grade 9. He has such the following that the D2 fan club has been made with Firmino as club president. Donato's best time at C.C.H. have been COR, church, Muggs, beer, and his locker partner, respectively.

Maureen Dowdall

Maureen is a real artsie type, and believes there's more to life than math and science. Maureen hated taking the school bus (she had a squid bus driver). We think Moe is going to be a New York fashion designer, but rumor has it that she wants to drive a bus.

Gerry Drabick
Drab's is one of the many names on a petition to City Hall to construct a dome over Gibbon's Park. He is the only faithful fan of the Period D Italian Invitational Euchre Playing League who isn't Italian. Could Mrs. Drabick possibly have such an odd son?

David DuBoulay
David is a real dangerous guy... watch out. With that wild accent, we figure he must be from a real wild tropical bush country. Ouch. And we figure, if David doesn't like his write up, we'd better get out of town! Good luck to you, Dave.

Janet Elias
Janet loves to giggle, and often laughs too loud in class. She loves Camp Oskiniko, and loves the spirit here at CCH. Janet is just an all-round lovable girl. Keep smiling and giggling, but please, Janet, cut the laughing... good luck.

Elsie Ensing
Elsie is a musical girl, and aside from playing in the Band, she plays the piano like a dream. She admits she's "alright", but we think she puts Beethoven in his place! Yes, we think Elsie is going places!

Stephen Fenerty
Stephen is our tennis pro, who also plays the electric guitar with the hottest group around - the STYLISTS. You're a great guy, Geezur, but get out of town! Stephen has learned to hate grade ten class reps that ask "Can I pay you next Thursday?"

Caroline Ferrero
Caroline is famous for her beautiful voice, and for spraying on the Miss Clairol between classes. Our gum chewing friend is trying to educate the multitudes at CCH with her designer fashions, but finds us a very unresponsive audience.

Chris Ferris
Chris discovered this year that organizing the chocolate bar campaign for the grade nines was nothing short of a pain in the... His only escape from reality was Mike's Algebra class, where he could fantasize about being in another plane.

Nicoletta Ficca
Nicoletta can be found Friday and Saturday nights at Ichabod's just doing what everyone does at Ichabod's... a little this, and a little that. We hope you have a good time next year, and don't party too much.

Dave Flynn
Dave's hair is the hottest topic of controversy these days - no, it's not a perm or a wig - it's just naturally curly. Dave wants to replenish his wardrobe with leather vests like Mr. Kellett's, but he's not sure if they're uniform.

Linda Flynn
Linda's favourite hang out spot is Grand Bend. She claims that the sights there are out of this world! She hopes one day to meet up with Tom Cruise, move to California, and windsurf forever. "Let's go Surfin' now", we've often heard Linda utter in the halls on Monday mornings.

Edna Borja

Edna is running for woman of the year. She keeps herself very busy with COR stuff and with Warren. How busy with Warren just ask him. Edna enjoys hockey and everything to do with hockey. Edna might end up being a hockey star. "hockey-pockey"

Sean Flynn

Sean has the distinction of having the brightest carrot top on the Sr. B Ball team. Sean enjoyed WRE551 with Terrance, and fondly remembers the day they called him out of that class three times in a row . . . we think the secretaries in the main office like carrots.

Joe Fonti

Who is Joe? Well, if you knew him you'd be scared, because Joe is mean. Joe is great in school and he's gonna go far! Alright Joe!

Bill Ford

Bill was the art club co-prez this year, and loves to sit at the head table during SC meetings. Although Bill has one too many keys, we think he's an OK guy. Bill enjoys eating CCH chocolate bars, telling bad jokes, and driving around "old 69", like a maniac. Quoi pensez-vous, Bill? 3.71.

Jennifer Foulon

Jen is a devout prefect . . . she works hard for the money to pay off the debt she created by going to Jamaica for the March Break. Looks like Florida just wasn't good enough, eh Man. Jen likes swimming in Jamaica in the moonlight.

Christine Gammal

Christine works at her favourite bar - Ichabod's. Christine is Sandi's best friend, they're stuck together like crazy glue. They also have a fascination for B.M.O.C. or DEAD FETAL PIGS!!

Kari Garfat

Kari rides in a lovely red bug, it is really the cutest red bug you could see, it is also the things that Kari does in her bug that are funny! Kari has had some wild parties in her time just ask Miss Cheryl Laroche, she'll tell 'ya.

Mark Geddes

Mark is rather new to the sacred halls of C.C.H. His favorite past-times are window shopping at K-Mart, and riding the LTC around town on a Friday night. Mark is a good student and friendly.

Paul Gehl

Boy, were we lucky to have Paul here at CCH. We didn't know farmers could play hockey! His future plans include either becoming a financial wizard on Wall Street or being a functions major in Alaska. You know what they say about Eskimos, right Paul?

Kim Geoffrey

Kim has made sure that both semesters she has D and E spare, so she can dash home and watch soaps on the tube. She wishes she could have Tom Sellek, so donations are being taken (see Roberta Bonaccini) Kim wants to be a nurse. We know you'll be a good one Kim!

Monique Gignac

Monique would like to be remembered as not just anybody, but a somebody. Somebody's favorite times at CC have been partying at Camp O and skipping without getting caught (what an achievement) Mick plans to become the greatest veterinarian, and buy up all of CCH, and live off interest.

Gene Gillen

Gene is freshman to our class of grade 13 men. We thank him for his contributions to the CCH hockey and football teams, but most of all the 13 grads would like to thank him for his suggestion to survive through grade 13 classes . . . "B.Y.O.P." Bring your own pillow. Thank Gene.

Mike Gillis

Mike plays hockey for CCH, and this is the reason he can be heard speaking with a certain Calculus teacher on a first name basis. Mike hopes to go on in school, but may follow in the footsteps of his idol, Paul Legge, and stagnate at CC for another year.

Denise Gosling

Denise loves to be awakened during her period A class by the sound of Mr. Fekete's pleasant voice over the PA, telling her that she has to pay her tuition. Denise's future plans include University, and Chemical Engineering. Good luck Denise!

Chris Grieg

Chris' ambition is to be the first male student at Mount St. Joseph's. In his spare time he plans to remain an idol for the grade 9 and 10 girls.

Angela Griffin

Ange plans to marry an extremely well off tycoon who will buy her things. She would also like to hide away in an isolated laboratory and develop a cure for the female disease of wagging tongue and loose lips . . . better known as gossip. "I'm not drunk, I'm just rowdy," Angela assures us.

Richard Haak

Richard can be seen eyeing the "scenery" in the WW Cafeteria. Richard's contributions at CCH include being a regular member of the CCH hockey team. Rick's superb game play nearly gave CCH an upset in semi-final action against Oakridge. Too bad close only counts in horseshoes.

Dianne Haggarty

Dianne was SC Secretary this year, and did a great job on the Turnabout Dance. And aside from all of the "creeps" on student council with her, she managed to survive. Haggas was also a cheerleader, and helped lead our school to many-a-victory, simply by wiggling her pom poms.

Carol Hemmings

Carol, our resident Jamaican, loves funk, reggae and boys that really scream loudly. We will find Carol a few years down the road, teaching languages and writing an autobiography. I think you should teach Jamaican at CCH, don't you, Man?

Karl Hermann

The best thing that ever happened to Hermann was the day his daddy bought him a trombone. Karl is really into music and is already showing signs of being the next Phil Murphy . . . God forbid! Karl is the only person I know who bothered to take correspondence Accounting. Why? He thrives on bird courses silly! Good luck Karl.

Joanne Hessing
Joanne enjoys CCH, except for the uniform - she's not alone. She also enjoys dissection in bio, only because Mr. Meyer is there. Actually, she liked it so much that she applied to the meat department at Dominion. Joanne is frequently heard muttering: "Where's the Beef?".

Ken Hoevenaars
Ken's favorite thing about CCH is Mary and spares. Ken is best known for his ability to hold his own while the rest are under the table. Atta boy, Ken, have another! We wish Ken the best of luck in the future.

Tom Howatson

Tom is our Scottish man, who can be heard through the halls shouting "party at Yancy's". He enjoys music, and was part of the senior and stage bands for the past three years. Good luck in aviation, lad, and we love your wee Scottish accent.

Paul Hubbert

Paul enjoys playing football at CC, and is even thinking of coming back for the next season. Paul doesn't like people asking him if he's related to OLD MOTHER HUBBERT. So Just to set the record straight, she was his great grandmother.

Kristine Hurrell

Kristine is always fun to be around. She laughs at any joke - no matter how bad it is - Kris has gone to bigger and better things.

Terry Jansen

Janitor - what more must we say? - is a real wild man on the B-ball courts . . . he comes on at the end of a game and "cleans up". Terry can be found during his spare time up in the SC Office eating leftover CCH chocolate bars.

Tim Jansen

Tim has managed to stick it out til grade 13, although he was thinking of dropping out of school in grade 10, when he got sick in English class - he informed us of the general embarrassment he experienced for the rest of the course. We hope your future will be bright, Tim!

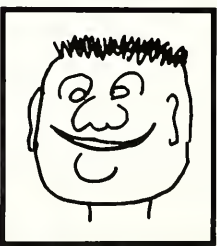

Jack Johnson

Jake the snake was a "reserved" character at school, but a wild man on the outside. He made it very clear to us that his best time at CCH was "none of our business". His involvements at CC include the great Pit debates. Good luck, Jack.

Andrew Kang

Andrew plans to chase Bo Derek all over the world, and woo her with his great sense of humour, attained through Mr. O'D's PHY551 class. Andrew plans to become a computer analyst, provided he doesn't get nuked before he's out of university.

Tony Kasza

Tony is a regular SPAZ of a guy, who was our treasurer this year. Most of the time, Tony hung out in the YB office, eating chocolate bars, or collecting money for the phone bill. Tony likes wearing green tights, and making funny faces when he gets his picture taken . . . he hasn't had a normal one yet.

Marie Kay

Marie has given CCH all she's got. Marie's bright and cheery face can be seen almost every where at CCH. As one of the female jock's, you can find her at the Phys-Ed office helping with intermurals or on the volleyball or basketball courts. Marie's terrific team spirit, enthusiasm and leadership are dominant driving forces behind the success of the teams she plays on. Thanx Marie!

Danielle Kelly

Danielle is one wild and crazy gal! Danielle is what one calls a "severe partyer". The mere mention of the words party and beer, causes Danielle's ears and eyes to open and mouth to water. Danielle hasn't been around too much this year. We missed ya kiddo! Well, after Mr. Meyer's Biology class, we can't blame you!

Debbie Killeen

Debbie has donated lots of time and effort to our school sports teams. But alas, Paul is taking up so much of her time that she had to quit the intermural mud wrestling team. Debbie disguised herself for a week or two as a gerbil. Funny, that was the week after she had her wisdom teeth pulled...

Liz Klambauer

Liz's best time at CC was not at the school at all, but on a school ski trip to Montreal. Did you know the age is 18 in Quebec? Liz passed on this information to us from first hand experience. Good luck in the future, Liz!

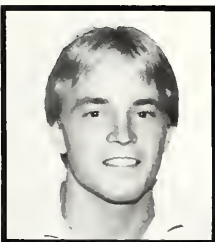

Mr. Squid I. Yam

Mr. Squid I. Yam is really a janitor, but he is a past graduate of CCH, and he said that when he graduated in 1933, and they didn't even have yearbooks then, much less grade 13 write ups. Besides, he paid us rather well for this. I wonder if anyone else has even gone to grade 51?

Jennifer Kriscie

Jen has the magical ability to make "objects" disappear out of bathroom sinks (remember Jen!). Jennifer likes Mark, volleyball and partying. (not necessarily in that order). Jennifer's most memorable moment in her years at CCH was being temporarily transformed into Karl Malden. Jen, may you always find "spike" in your life.

Jeff Kuchta

Jeff plans to become top salesman for a large corporation using the motto "Ya wanna buy a hat?" His present interests are basketball, Christine Brinkley, Montreal and the prom committee. He is also famous for the lines: "I left my ID in the car", and "Where's the bar?"

Rick Kvas

"Yogi" enjoys doing nothing in the Library. Gee, sounds exciting. His favourite thing about CCH are the short days. Rick was on the Reach for the Top Team, and still had time to finish five years of high school in four years. For Goodness sake!

Shauna Lacey

Shauna can usually be seen zooming around in Stacey's Corvette, or up in the library doing her homework like a very good grade 13 should.

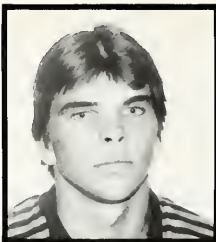

Chris LaFleche

Chris is the epitome of grade 13 apathy. Chris is one cool dude, (he hangs out regularly in the library). Chris can be seen daydreaming in Frank's class regularly. Some people just don't appreciate the fundamental concepts of Calculus!

Cheryl Laroche
Cheryl plans to take an early retirement along the beaches of Ft. Lauderdale. Alternate plans include becoming Prime Minister, inspired greatly by Fr. T's WPO 551 class. We also thank Cheryl for providing employment for half the seniors at CC. Love ya, Cheryl!

Don Leduc
"Burt" is a regular pit person. One of his lifelong dreams is to teach FST 551. Don insists that he's not French, but I distinctly remember reading about his family in grade seven French. Didn't he have a dog ... Pitou?

Gabriel Lee
Gabriel is a real GQ man, and does his darndest to educate all of the fellows at CC High about the world of designer fashions. We know that Gabe is smart, and we think that for a smart guy, he's pretty cool too. Good luck in all you do!

Wai-Lin Lee
Wai-Lin McLeeshire is the little social butterfly who likes giving tall people hugs in the hall. For a free hug, or a good late night Video party, contact Wai at your friendly neighbourhood Golden Dragon Restaurant. The question of the year: when DID Wai-Lin go to class?

Karen Lenehan
Karen comes from a big family, and this may explain her opinion that CCH isn't crowded ... "try brushing your teeth at ten to eight with fourteen people in the washroom!" We see your point, Karen. Karen also enjoys her kilt, and dissecting rats in Bio.

Paul Legge
Yes, here's Paul "call me tonight" Legge again, and this year, he had a lot of fun playing hockey and football. Most of his time, however, was spent partying with the wild Irishmen, O'Keefe, and O'Connor. He did manage a few classes in-between, as well.

Mary Liston
Mary enjoyed herself this year. Just ask her about passing notes in Marie's English class. Mary's plans include becoming an artsie, and getting another job so she can quit the library. Mary will miss CCH, but she won't miss wearing her kilt on windy days.

Julie Lynch
Julie enjoyed her years at CC. She found herself a real man, however, and we haven't seen her since! And if you ever need a good one-liner for Mr. Kellett's CHE 551 class, just ask Jules ... she's cornered the market.

Krista Lindenblatt
Krista is definitely not a dumb blonde. She can be seen starring away at her father's camera store.

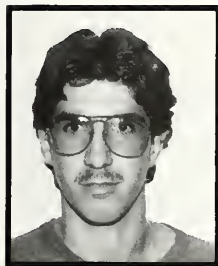

Ludvik Lovsin
Ludvik has been a member of the wrestling team and likes rock and roll music. Perhaps he likes wrestling to rock'n'roll, or listening to rock'n'roll while wrestling. Ludvik (not Ludwig) plans to go to University to study.

Nicola Lynch
Nicola is one of your phantom grade 13's . . . she's out of class more than she's in it! She tried attending five classes in a row, but alas, it was too much for her, and she has not been the same since. And just for the record, no, she's no relation to Julie (thank you Joanne, for that little tidbit of info).

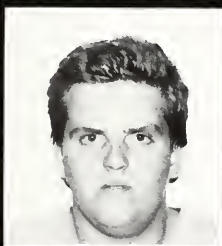

Paula Lyons
Paula is having a good time, as we are sure she is out partying, even as we speak. Paula is lucky that she never had to take the yellow bus to school - She could just walk to school. (Who got to sleep in til 8:30 every morning?)

Firmino Macedo
Firmino has the distinction of being the oldest member of the 13 class. Lets just say he's been of age since grade 11. He's also provided a very convenient lunch time party house for all the "Muggs". Good man, Firmino.

Paul MacKinnon
Paul is another loyal prefect supporter, who sneaks into his locker at lunch just to hear the voice of Jim Silvestro yell at him. Paul is a fiery red-head who enjoys adventure and Jay-walking at Colbourne and Dundas (what courage) Paul's ambition is simply to have a job.

Bill Maessen
Bill is one of those guys who is always prepared . . . were you a boy scout, Bill? Well, we have arrived at this conclusion from seeing him wandering the halls of CCH with a pencil behind each ear, and pants ready for flood waters. Good luck, Bill.

Judy Maniago
Hey Jude, how's the weather up there? Tough is Judy's middle name. (careful don't get her mad). Judy prefers her men tall (over six foot please), dark, handsome and with a great sense of humour, just like herself. Jude has done alot of swishing and spiking here at CC High. Eh to go Jude!!!

Lawrence Marcotte
Lawrence claims he has a hard time understanding certain female species, but he would certainly enjoy a female companion to travel the world with. He'd even pay her. We've only known Lawrence for a short year, but golly, he's a nice guy. Good luck in medicine, "Chief"

Richard Marciniowski
Rich is with us for yet another year. Care to go for seven, Rich? Well, I think it's just about time that you move along in life, although rumor has it that they were going to give you your own mail box in the staff room next year, as you are about as old as some staff members.

Kathy Marsman
Kath is one of those very dependable people. She has put her heart and soul into this book. Kath is . . . purple, E=MC², ribbons, muffins, bugs, Bayfield, sunsets, camp, ice cream, and music.

Rosanne Marzali
Known as "Rosy" to her friends, Roseanne falls in love at least twice a week with some lucky Western man. Rosy loves Florida life guards, stepping stones, and midnight aloe rubs. She is tired of London men, and plans to go to Lakehead University next year. Good luck!

Julie Matus
Better known as "little woman", Julie trots the halls without ever being seen. She claims to love working on Friday nights and simply adores French. Good luck in all you do - and especially with Andy.

Joanne Mazzotta
Joanne's involvements here at CCH include Prom Committee, Yearbook Club, Basketball, and Volleyball, and even the occasional class. Yes, high school has agreed with Jo, but we all agree that she's bound for better things . . . East London has it's good apples, too, right, Jo?

Elaine McKinley
Elaine is from "the Isles", and came to CCH in grade 11. She likes it here, but says we all talk funny. Elaine is always very happy, or so it seems . . . maybe someone should tell her that the Russians have the bomb. Good luck in the future, Elaine!

Jackie McCallum
Jackie is that raving beauty who likes scary religion filmstrips. We haven't seen her around too much of late, but rumor has it that she is still in mourning over CCH's loss of their closet punker - Mr. Becze. Don't take it too hard, Jackie.

Bill McCarvell
Although Bill doesn't say much, a nicer guy you wouldn't want to meet. Perhaps the future holds the title "Pope Billy". That'll mean no more help on French quizzes. Bill was part of the letter H . . . yes, Bill was one of the thousands that stood on the field to get the famous YB airplane shot.

Jennifer McDonald
Jennifer decided to come to CC from Parkhill. Wise decision . . . Where else could one get a crash course in chemical humor, taught by the one and only Mr. Kellett? Jennifer hopes to study Nursing at Western. But if you get lost in the halls at CC, there's little hope for you up on the hill.

Chantal McFarrell
"Chanie" has spent a lot of her spare time bugging her favorite prefect - George P., and trying to co-ordinate her sweaters with her earrings. She has helped out the school this year by assisting Barb in the attendance office. Good luck in the future.

Karen McGuire
Karen is another Florida Beach bum. A private informer told us that a shark ate Karen's bikini while she was swimming, but we are also informed that she may not remember it. Karen is also a night school groupie . . . way to go!

Alison McKenzie
Alison's all time favourite hangout is Mr. Furfaro's grade 13 French class. Her second favourite pastime is spent partying with the Wies of Kari.

Jerome McIntyre
Jerome has been with the music program since he can recall. Hasn't he been wonderful? He remembers that wonderful trip to New York City - he said it's the only reason he was in the band in the first place - then Murphy made him sign his soul away.

Patti McMullen

Patti has been a member of the swim team, and has made many eventful appearances at school dances. Patti enjoyed functions better the second time around, only because of the GORGEOUS guys in the class. Good luck in the future, Patricia!

Bonnie McPhee

This is Bonnie's first and hopefully last year at CCH. Bonnie has had the pleasure of having Mr. Kellett for CHE 551 and learning about temporary muscular contusions caused by low-profile days. Bonnie is still a down to earth person, only because she hasn't been at CCH long enough to permanently damage her brain.

Corina Melchers

Cleo hopes some day to travel the dirt roads of India, of course with Frankie, her BASSOON buddy. She claims her best time at CCH was her "4th day", but what about the 5th, 6th and nth? Corina organized the Who is Who this year, and did a fine job!

Deanna Moir

"Ding Dong" is our resident cheerful "east end girl". Dee's involvement at CC include the curling team, Yearbook, and We Take Pride in our Bus Club. Remember the day you pulled down you-know-who's pants after the Christmas Assembly? Dee wants to be a nurse, but we think she'll end up in a bug with a med student.

Antoine Moonen

Antoine has certainly taught us a thing or two about dancing at CCH - if you want to dance, that's the place not to go. It's OK, Antoine, we know you're an OK DJ, we've heard you on the other frequency.

Julie Moore

Julie was the secretary on student council last year, and this year she plays ball and helps out on YB staff. We will always remember Jules for being so bright and chipper, and laughing at people. Good luck in University, Julie.

Warren Morley

Warren enjoys spares in Algebra class, hanging out at Edna's locker, and going to COR parties. We think Warren will become a ditch digger in the Rain forests of Brazil, and we hope he brings Edna with him. Warren, that would be amazing.

Tom Morris

Tommy's had it rough here at CCH. He's been picked on for liking Mr. Kellett's wardrobe, bringing disco back to school dances, why, even Frank picks on him for taking Calculus twice. Tom has been a good prez this year, but soon his term is up. He'll have to find another place to park his motorcycle if they won't let him keep his parking sticker.

John Morrissey

If you didn't see John that much this year, it's because he was too busy beaming himself up to the Brunswick. In a few years, John hopes to go to mars, and start the Martian chapter of the Star Trek Fan Club. Good luck, John!

Teresa Morrison

Teresa's involvement at CC include spares spent yacking in the WW dining lounge, and defying the school uniform. We think Teresa will end up a professional Religion Seminar writer. We hope you have lots of fun.

Barb Mottram

Barb left us behind second semester. Rumor has it that she has gone to seek her fortune. We're going to miss her as the temporary yearbook secretary, and as the bright and bubbly personality that she was. Barb, good luck, and we hope you find your fortune.

Cindy Mouneimne

Cindy is one of the regular clientele at Mr. Sub's and can be seen there often during her spares and lunches with Julie Lynch. Cindy didn't enjoy Calculus too much or maybe she didn't enjoy the dark moustached casanova. It's okay Cindy you're not alone.

Brutus Snaggle-Puss

Brutus left CCH after the first semester. He was . . . well, I don't know if I should tell you this, but promise not to tell anyone? OK. I trust you. Well, Brutus was kicked out of CCH because he was charged with break and entry by the Administration. They caught him trying to single handedly pull off the grade 13 prank, in October. Really, Brutus, elephants were a little suspicious.

Dave Murphy

"Gimp" shares the desire of many grade 9 girls to grow a foot or two - maybe that's why Dave likes grade nine girls - they see eye to eye. Dave's ambition is to play hockey like Sean O'Connor, and continue playing hockey for CCH for a few more years. Has any one ever gone to grade 16?

Austin Muscat

Austin took many of the pictures in this book. He can be spotted running from darkroom to YB Office or vice versa. His future plans include engineering at Western, and having more deep, meaningful parties every time his parents go away. See ya around, and thanks for everything, buddy!

Siobhan Murphy

You can find Siobhan at Ladies Night at Cinders. She would like to be in residence at Midway Hall next year, but it doesn't look too hopeful. As a member of the Mr. Kellett Fan Club, Siobhan sits near the window in Chemistry to watch for Russian spies.

Carl Neels

Carl is that hulking massive monster that walks the halls with a mean look on his face . . . but actually Carl is a sweet sort of guy. Carl's hobbies at CCH are many, his favorite is hanging out in the east wing cafeteria with his buddies.

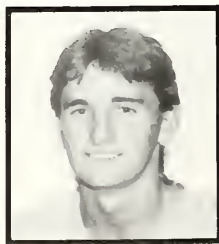

Leanne Nagle

Snaggle-Puss is the sweetest thirteen goin'. She has the cutest smile and laugh. Leanne will go far with or without Gabe. Leanne also has this thing for Italian men. Know one is quite sure what the attraction is but it seems to be there. ie. Phil, Gabe . . . Someday Leanne will be the perfect wife and make the perfect dinners. ie. Lasagna, spaghetti, macaroni . . .

Sheena Nugent

Sheena is one of CCH's more "Risqué" partiers. She really is a star. A star in the sense of the word that she is a veteran actress. Her major musical role won her the coveted Oscar, and into the Hall of Avg's. "Party-Up! Irish".

Pete O'Donnell

Pete's interests include skiing, and investing in lights for GB's plateau. Though some may see a resemblance, Willy is not Pete's father. Pete plans to some day lead an oppressed African nation in a revolution against it's tyrannical dictator. Maybe he should stick to clearing tables at Casey's.

Sean O'Keefe
Sean is an O.K. guy. He really can organize a hulluva Grade 13 party! Sean has a lot of friends, ask any one of them!!

Peter Paczko
Paco is the definition of party. Pac-man always goes all the way when it comes to parties. Paco also is the best driver at school, ask any cop --- they know about the PAC-MOBILE!!!

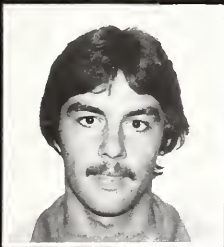

John Paczkowski
John likes sports, but we promised him we wouldn't say which type of sports . . . (ooh, how connative) John had Willie for Physics, and thinks fondly of the day that Willie bought the class coffee and doughnuts for not telling Administration that he (Willie) skipped class the day before. John told us it was a hangover, but we don't believe everything we hear.

Jeff Parker
Parker the motorhead is quite the rocker. He is into all that heavy metal music like "Bang your head" or "Kill your Pet Fish". You can see Jeff at the next Ozzy concert!! We will all remember Jeff by his orange pants and Hawaiian shirts.

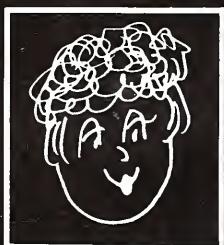

Mark Parker
Mark's life ambition is to become a gino . . . so he won't be the only non-gino to play soccer for CCHigh (like in grade nine, eh?). Mark probably won't have another season here, at CCH, but he's started eating more pasta, grapes, and strange meat. He's drinking more home made wine recently, also . . . he may not even last through this season if he keeps it up.

Fabio Parovel
Fabio holds the all time record of signing late at C.C.H.; even though he only lives a few blocks away. Perhaps he should invest in an alarm clock. Fabio's gorgeous blue eyes mesmerize many of the females at C.C.H. including some of the female teachers. Is that why his tardiness is so overlooked??? Hmm, I wonder???

Jeff Pascoe
Most of Jeff's enthusiasm at CCH are primarily associated with the drama club, theatre and sitting mindlessly in Calculus. Jeff plans to attend Ryerson for theatre (directing, not acting), and become the next Steven Spielberg. Who Knows, Jeff!! Go for it.

April Paton
April managed to shock everyone in the second semester by having her long, long hair cut short! It looks great April!

Joanie Paton
In case you haven't noticed, Joanie and April are twins. Joanie was one of the stars of the girls vs. guys football game.

Deborah Paul
Deb "Ah, Galere" Paul enjoyed her first year here at CCH, but has secretly confessed that she'd rather be in France. This year she was a class rep, and a member of CAST, and co-produced a play. But she's leaving the halls of CC behind (and John too!) when she goes to Kingston for University. Have a good time, Debbie!

Tom Payne

Tom has told us in deepest confidence that his great grandfather was a squid (no, not an octopus, a SQUID). He therefore believes in evolution, but wasn't that a little quick? Good luck next year, Tom.

Marc Pensa

Marc is a very wise grade 13, in the way that he decided to take functions in night school. Rumor has it that it's his fourth time around, but don't believe everything you hear. He can usually be found hanging out in the pit, just doing whatever with whoever.

Antonieta Pepe

Antonieta enjoys watching TV, listening to music, movies and having a good time (don't we all). She has been reported molesting grade nines for their immature and rookish behavior. Antonietta plans to attend university, major in physical therapy, and eventually fly all over the world (start flappin', honey!)

Matthew Pepe

"Le Peu" shares the desire to grow as tall as Webster. Matt loves football... and can he play! Better still, though, he loves "Baby Cakes", his sweetheart (name withheld) We all know Matt's great, but if you're in doubt, just ask him... he'll set you straight.

Maria Parencsik

Maria just dazzles us with her wild clothing. We think that Maria is going to follow in the footsteps of Einstein, no, she's not going to become a little old grey haired scientist, but we think that she is going to discover something relative. Good luck in the future, Maria.

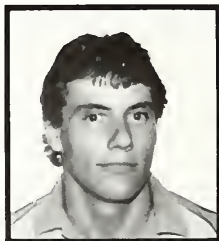

Lissa Petch

Lissa loves to swim. She is quite the aqua woman! Lissa was an amazing dancer in the school show - so good that she's asked to join the NBA, but that would conflict with her swim classes.

Mike Phillips

Mike is the taller half of Mike and Shelagh. His hobby is patting short people on the head and daring them to fight him.

Rita Piccoli

Rita is the other bobsey twin (see DalPos, Rosanna). Her ambition is to set a world record for continuous conversation with her sidekick.

Rita Pirocchi

Rita is the other half of the bobsey twins (Rosanna DalPos is the other, but they don't look alike). They failed chemistry together, because they were too busy talking to each other, and forgot to take notes... all year... now, come on, girls, isn't that a little much?

John Pizzuti

John is one of the elite who doesn't need public transit... my question: how did you get that parking sticker? John loves math, but more than that, he loves soccer. And how can we forget to mention that John's idol is Sean O'Keefe? Good luck in the future, John.

Tamsin Plaxton

When Tamsin is not busy eating, she is one of the many loyal sports fans and can be seen cheering on all the teams to victory. Tammy's future plans include buying a Yacht and "accidentally" getting shipwrecked on a deserted island with the Senior Roy's Basketball team. She just wants to have fun before the bomb drops. Good luck at UBC, Tamsin!

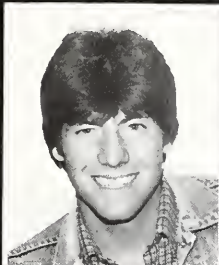

Anne Marie Poels

Do you know this student? Sure, come on, YOU KNOW! She was in Mrs. Collette's ENA 551 class. Girl is a social reject, however, and kind of UGLY, so maybe you haven't noticed her. Oh well, no loss.

Janet Pokladek

Janet is that eccentric blonde you see wandering the halls with an "I love Poland" button keeping her kilt together, where the big safety pin used to be. Perhaps "Pope Janet" is in the cards for you, Janet. Keep it in mind, you could start a new trend.

Michael Pol

Mike, otherwise known as "Farmer", likes drinking lunch at the Budapest, Lynrd Skynyrd, and giving out free dirty looks to rocks in the halls. Mike is likely to be the leader of a revolutionary movement called "Rebels for CCH Uniform Prevention".

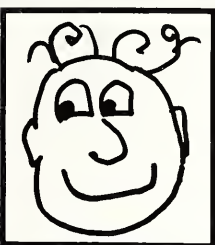

George Pook

George was a prefect this year - he wouldn't let anyone get by him - not even his mother, the day she came to bring him his lunch, which he had forgotten at home. Well, George, is this is, or what? I mean, who is going to fill your shoes (not to mention the pop machine) next year?

Catherine Potvin

Cathy is one of your sweet charming, naive and innocent girls. Truthfully now, she is a great person and YES, is related to Dennis Potvin of hockey fame.

Eric Power

Eric could only join us for the first semester - rumor has it that he had to drop calculus and functions because he could only count up to 21. Eric is now mopping up in University Hospital. Good luck, Eric, and don't injure too many people. OK?

Christine Price

Christine's five years at CCH have been spent smiling at people, and cheering everyone up. Her endless energy and enthusiasm is obtained from the cafeteria French fries. Christine worked at the Central library, and she enjoys all of the school dances, parties, and watching DF in Chemistry class. Good luck, Chris!

Marianna Przytulski

Marianna likes CC, but most of all she loves the uniform. She claims the best times she had at CCH were when she wasn't there. She has one major goal in life - to be the first female to see the center of the earth. Good luck, Marianna, and we certainly hope you make it back.

Idalgo Raimondo

Not too many people wear aprons to dissect their piggy in 13 Bio, but Idalgo brought his along. Peer pressure had him put it away before the third class, but the intention was there. Good luck, Idalgo!

Lisa Reed

If, while walking down the hall, you suddenly see a whirl of red whiz by you, it's probably Lisa running to class (not because she's late, she simply forgot how to walk). Lisa's outstanding cross country and track performances include all Ontario titles, and have made all of us at CCH proud to say that Lisa is a fellow Crusader. Good luck Lisa!

Frank Riccardelli

Riccardelli (said with roll of the tongue) is a fun sort of guy, who lives in a huge house out in the country. Frank likes football so much he owns his own football stadium - in his backyard. I wonder what Frank's goin' to be. Maybe a professional weight lifter? Either way: we like Frank, because he's nice to prefects.

Mike Robbins

Mike is a real CCH type of guy. He's been on track, badminton and volleyball teams. Mike has shown the school his Lionel Ritchie impersonations on stage, as well. Rumor has it, Mike will be around next year to recruit the new grade nines into the Mike Robbins Fan Club.

Krysta Robinson

Do you know Krysta? Well, if you don't, it's your loss, or so she tells us. Krysta must spend a lot of time doing other things than going to school, or we would have seen her there more often. We wish you luck in the future, Krysta!

Caroline Ross

Caroline was a prefect this year . . . and you probably thought she just liked kicking people out of their lockers. Caroline was out of school for a while with mono, and she's still tired, just ask her.

Caroline went on a ski trip to Montreal and had a really good time on the slopes. Good luck next year at Western.

Lucia Rossini

Lucia has faithfully got up at 5:30 every morning for the past 5 years to get to band practice on time. In the afternoons, you can find her in the YB Office laughing at almost anything. Always impeccably dressed, Lucie's mission in life is to bring European styles into CCH, but alas, her Vogue designs are ahead of their time. Good luck next year in Pharmacy . . . (or will you be an engineer?)

Elaine Rottman

Elaine has been in the music department for so long that they asked her to be in a COMMERCIAL for the school (no, not one of those tacky radio commercials . . . we're talking TV here) Elaine didn't like night school, though, so she quit.

Zilko Rukavina

Zilko loves spares and wasting time (the two are equivalent). Zeek is planning an open rebellion and riot against the administration to abolish the dress code. Zilko also gets a kick out of fanatic English teachers. Who could he possibly mean? (Come on, you know! Come on!)

Sandra Salvador

Sandra hates to be called Sandy. Sandra's most memorable moments were spent with an unidentified male blond beyond the dunes on the beaches of Florida. Sandra plans to tackle university next year and return to Florida on Slackweek for a prearranged rendez-vous with guess who? Sandra your wholesome looks had us all fooled!!

Joe Sammut

Joe has become CCH's answer to Michael Jackson . . . ooo! He has his own grade nine fan club, and membership for next year looks promising. Joe has had too many CCH women to mention in such limited space, so we won't. Good luck, Joe!

Mickey Sauro
Mickey is very interested in police services a.i. Frank. She and Cheryl (see LaRoche), are planning to decorate the inside of the lockers of the second floor of the East Wing. Her major concern is to overcome her compulsive habit of disobeying the CCH uniform regulations.

John Say
Say, say, say is a practical joke . . . oops, I mean he plays practical jokes. Aside from his animalistic tendencies on the football field, John is a real pussycat in the class room. Keep banging heads, John.

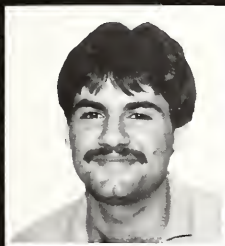

Frank Sinko
Frank is a philosopher from Windsor. He loved to argue in Mr. Gallivan's Wre 551 class. His future plans include living in the Swiss Alps, making a million before he turns 21, and partying on an island, but we're not too sure how far you can go selling paint for minimum wage (oh, sorry, Frank, we forgot you got a raise).

Karen Sirna
Karen is our GAA woman this year, and when she's not organizing intramurals, you can find her either sacked out in the phys ed office or being chased by yearbook Photographers to set a day for the GAA picture. Well, we finally got it.

Jim Silvestro
Jimmy is here again because he didn't want to leave his couch in the yearbook office alone with all the crazies up there. Aside from patrolling the halls, Jim likes to hang around Father Joe (his idol), and pick arguments with anyone who wants to state their opinion. Good luck at Western next year!

Angela Sleepers
Angela enjoys skipping night school to party. Always smiling that big Sleepers smile, Ange must be one of the most cheerful 13s we know. Angela spends most of her time at CCH ducking Bob, Les, and Tom when she's out of Uniform (always). We wish you luck, Ange in what ever you do!

Anita Smith
Anita can be heard singing duets with Marla Silvestro every morning on the Route 4 school bus. Not only can Anita sing and dance, but she can act, too! Nete's plans to become the next Barbra Wawa, and do the News Update every week on Saturday Night Live. Anita is a member of the NYC Aqua Velva Club.

Lee Smithson
Lee just hasn't been the same since he came back from Florida on the March break . . . I mean, he's been wearing a new shirt every day, and doesn't just think of partying on Friday nights, but all week long. Lee is a Beachbum - we may as well face reality. Good luck to you in the years to come, Lee.

Jan Sochacki
Jan can be found, most lunch hours, liquidating at the Budapest. He likes to wear black, listen to blues, and express radical views on almost any subject. Jan is trying to decide what to do with his future. It's between illegal copy-writing, songwriting, permanent CCH studenthood, or making a wild video. Good luck to you, Jan!

Gloria Sorrenti
Gloria can be seen busily chit-chatting in the WW dining lounge. Though small in size, Gloria is big in heart, and has a very cheerful nature. Some times, however, this tends to anger the rest of the CCH population, who are mad and grumpy on Monday mornings.

Walter Stenberg
The "doctor's" favourite pastimes include kicking footballs, soccerballs, and laying odds on anything. Walter's future plans are to go to the U of West Virginia on a Football scholarship, and follow in his hero's footsteps (Miss Howe), and teach grade nine math.

Mark Stumpf
Mark is the initiator and loyal member of the Willy O'D Fan Club. Mark's involvements at CCH have included the Computer and Reach For the Top Clubs. Mark's future plans include Engineering at Waterloo (good time!), where he will probably discover the quantum theory and discover the true essence of matter... $E=mc^2$!

John Sutton
John is a really "with it" kind of guy. He enjoys going to Toronto, buying clothes, and hanging out at Debbie's locker. John is a member of the All Canadian Club - when he's not playing with raquets. John sells subscriptions to GQ magazine.

Randy Sweetey
Randy likes computers and cotton candy. We think Randy's going to become a candy store owner and he'll also be first one in Arabia to have a computerized till. Good Luck Randy.

John Tancredi
John's ambitions in life include growing to be five feet tall, getting a porsche, slapping a law suit on Goody Goody's for staff negligence, and getting a job. His idol... Mr. Gallivan, in case you didn't know. He wants Terrance signed up for the next season with the Muggs.

Larry Trowell
Larry plays hockey, and that's why his calculus mark is so high. We hope he has a good time next year just doing "whatever". Party Up, Larry.

Maria Tesser
Maria, better known as "Tess", describes her favourite pastimes as "falling in ditches". Please, someone, give her co-ordination. Her involvements were many: A class, B class, and C class. She claims her favourite music is from the CCH band. Good luck, Tess, and "watch this..."

Clea Tubello
Clea can be seen daily doing her ples down the CCH hallways. Clea is a regular beach bum and will be sunning it up in Europe this summer. (see Cris Del Re). She hopes to attend university this fall where she will major in the behaviour patterns of the male species or do the next best thing and marry M. Barishnakov.

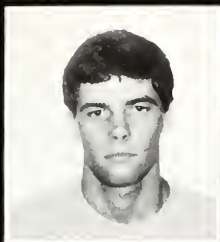

Allison Twohey
Two Two will remain fond in our memories as the one who got Bill Ford in trouble for having beer in his locker. Tomahawk will certainly have a quiet period E Chemistry class without her. Alison loves Bowie, Boy George, Orchestra (ha ha), and Mary's calculus class. SOMF 22.

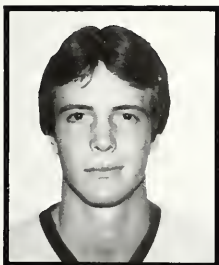

Yancy Tygesen
Yancy, pronounced yan-see, detests people asking him what his name is. Yancy loves long and wild weekends at the Bend. Yancy's future plans are to become an MD, go to Hong Kong, and of course, returning home for an early retirement.

John Tyrrell
John is one of the regular supporters of the "scrumptious" cafeteria dinners each week. John's contributions include football, and his Rodney-cartoon strip in the Knightrider. John plans to change the course of world history by going into show biz, replacing Mr. Rodgers, and brain washing millions of children into overthrowing all Western Capitalistic Governments.

Deborah Van Noort
Debbie is just a down to earth, sweet talking country girl. Debbie is new to CC High and can be seen wondering the halls searching blindly for her classes, (after the first semester you think she'd have learned). Debbie's favorite pastimes include milking the cows, feeding the chickens and swatting flies. Golly!!!

Troy Van Dyk
Troy enjoys raising the dead in his burgundy Dodge Dart . . . why, once he got a ticket in the CCH parking lot - we had a laugh over that! Troy likes hanging out in the pit, and partying with the boys . . . and the grade nine girls.

Patty Versteegh
Patty contributes her inner spiritual harmony to Mr. Gullivan's Religion 551 class. Patt's fave passtimes are picking apples, and hangin out in the YB Office. Patty was the prestigious Harvest Queen in 1983, and can certainly throw AMAZING parties. Patty sees Western in her future, and hopes to have some classes with Bill Ford . . . Her idol at CCH.

Maira Walko
"Wacko" is our resident sarcastic party woman, she has a comeback for any insult you can throw at her. As has happened with many, Maira found herself a man, and now they're inseperable. Good luck, Maira.

Chris Waugh
Chris's mission in life is to bring GQ styles into CCH. If he can't do that, he figures he'll just have to settle for being a Big Steel Man. Chris likes his spares, and uses them to chase the screaming grade nine girls around the portables.

Kim Williams
Kim is another WWDining Lounge groupie. We find it very peculiar that she didn't know that her very own uncle was a janitor at our school, and they've ignored each other in the halls for five years. Gee, I'll bet he's swept the dirt out from under her feet many times, and she didn't even know they were related.

Melissa Williamson
Mel is the co prez of the Art Club this year, and has been doing a fine job of it. She helps keep our halls delinquent-free, by prefecting. The highlights of her year include having her wisdom teeth out, and helping build the Santa Claus Parade Float. Melissa hopes to be in Occupational Therapy at Western next year. Good luck, Mel!

Paul Williamson
This is Paul's second write-up. See last year's Crusader for his first. Paul loves math so much he took calculus and functions three times. Care to try for a fourth, Paul? Paul's hobbies include Beer, Rowing, Debbie, in that order.

Bill Wilson
Bill is a real party man, second only to Ken Hoevenaars in being able to hold it down. Bet ya didn't know that, eh, Bill? That's because you've never read the walls of the first floor West Wing girl's washroom - you should see what else it says about you . . .

Elisa Wilson
Elisa was among the select few at CCH, fortunate enough to not have to take the school bus . . . she hitched a ride with her dad! Elisa spent last summer at Camp Oskinko, and razzle-dazzled them all with her expert guitar playing! Good luck in the future, Elisa!

Tracy Wilson
Tracy was another long suffering student of FST 551. She can be found working at Dominions with the likes of Cris Del Re. Tracy likes to let herself go and have a fun time. Trace's sees university in her future but will probably get married settle down and have eight kids.

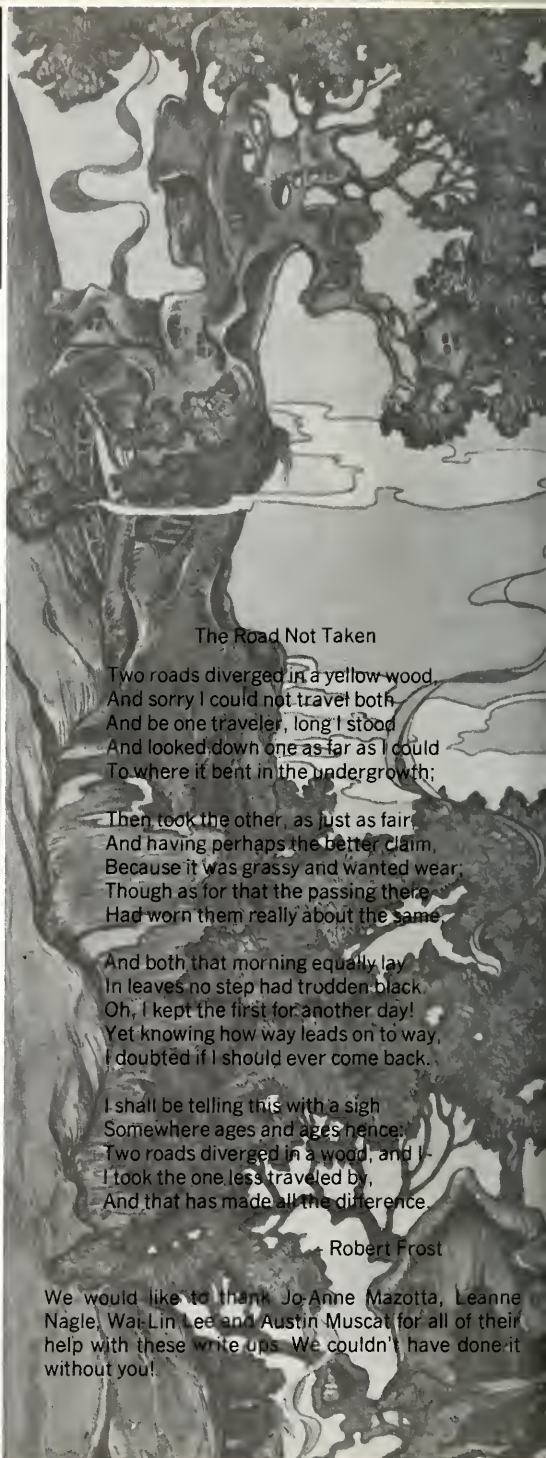

Jackie Wynen
Jackie is a member of the Frank Stranges Fan club. We've started up a petition to bring Frank to University with us next year, so that he can spoon feed us in Calculus 23. Jackie, we hope your future holds many amazing things!

Marilyn Wynen
Marilyn likes to hang out in the cafeteria at lunch, and watch Mr. Stranges write on the board in Calculus class. She wants to attend Western next year, in hopes of finding a higher form of intelligent life than can be found here at CC . . . What other possible reason could anyone have for taking grade nine computers in grade thirteen?

Marianne Zilic
Marianne has the distinction of being the last grade 13 in alphabetical order. I'll bet she has that problem a lot. Marianne enjoys spares and paid holidays (PD days, don't ya know . . . we even pay for those). Good luck in the future, Marianne!

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both,
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

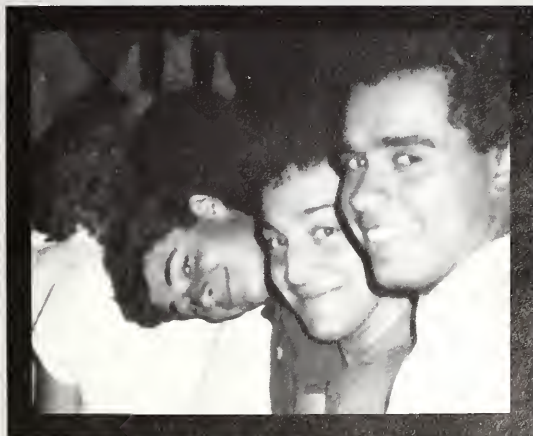

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

We would like to thank Jo-Anne Mazotta, Leanne Nagle, Wai-Lin Lee and Austin Muscat for all of their help with these write ups. We couldn't have done it without you!

THIRTEEN MASS

The date was June 12th. It was a hot and sticky Tuesday. The tension was mounting in the classrooms as both teachers and students anticipated this event.

The old timers had proven that age brings experience (and experience brings luck) in the 13's verses Teachers hockey and basketball games. But here was the real test!

Even though Furfaro's pitching was undeniable, and Meyer's bionic leg brought him super speed, the teachers lost the triple crown.

Janitor and Morris reported the final score to be 10 to 2 in favor of the 13's! Now that's a REAL switch!

I'd like to see you grade 13s do this!

Every year, CCH tradition dictates that a ROOKERAMA is held. This year was no exception. During a nice Period E in September, Grade nines were put in groups led by thirteens. They played games such as the ones you see them playing here.
A good time was had by all.

The Goon Squad took many victims

SEMI-FORMAL

The Semi Formal was a good time this year! Leanne Nagle and Dave Murphy organized it, and did a great job decorating. The theme was "You've Got a Friend". Students of all ages showed up and danced the night away.

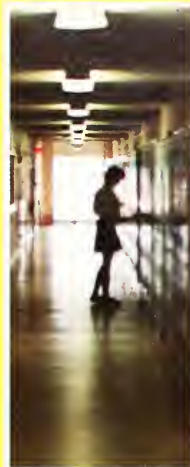

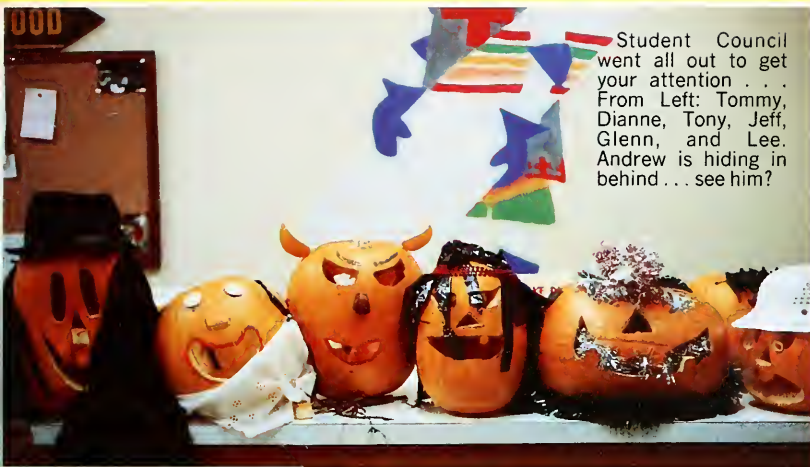

OPERATION KNOW

Operation Know is held at least once every year at Gibbons Park. This year, it was held in October. We had a great day, and everyone seemed to have fun. Some played catch, football, or frisbee. Others preferred to throw people into the Thames. Some were just hanging out, and others let other things "hang out".

Cabaret '84

Cabaret '84 was a success in many ways because it raised money for the Parent's Advisory Board and it also showed off a lot of talent among CCH in its Broadway Review.

There's No Business

The papers read, "HIGH-ENERGY ANNIE, 'SOMETHING SPECIAL'" and that's exactly what it was! "ANNIE GET YOUR GUN" was Catholic Central's first school musical in over five years and it was a HIT! It was three high-energy hours of music, song and dance that left every crowd leaving Talbot Theatre feeling great. The production basics were done by Herb and Dorothy Fields and the music was all composed by the great Irving Berlin. What nobody realized at first was that the two amazing directors, Pat Proulx and Pat Spadini could put together a show of such professional calibre. Pat Proulx always told his cast that 'there are no small parts, only small actors!', so you can believe that each role was played to perfection.

Like Show Business!

When one thinks of 'ANNIE', one can remember the super songs that were sang so well. Songs like "You Can't Get A Man With A Gun," "Moonshine Lullaby", "Sun In The Morning", "The Girl That I Marry", "Bad Bad Man", "I'm An Indian Too", will always bring back fond memories of the show. The Orchestra under the direction of Phil Murphy were superb in all of their music pieces. The real imagination of the show came through in the dance numbers, who can forget the creative Indian dance with the living Totem poles. Gaye Males was "ANNIE'S" delightful choreographer and the numbers she created were energetic. The show was also technically perfect because of the back stage crew. When people speak of "ANNIE GET YOUR GUN", well "THEY SAY IT'S WONDERFUL", and they're for certain to think that "THERE'S NO BUSINESS, LIKE SHOW BUSINESS"...

Catholic Central's Spring Prom 1984

The Best Is Yet To Come

CITY OF LONDON RETIREMENT PARTY MAY 31
CATHOLIC CENTRAL PROM JUNE 2
UNITED CHURCH CONVENTION JUNE 8 & 9

And didn't we dance all night at the prom? Kelly Blyndal and Jeff Kuchta, the prom committee heads, certainly put on a great evening. Friars Two catered the buffet dinner, and Day Break, the amazing band, supplied the music. The decorations were mostly hand painted murals, pink and grey streamers, balloons and flowers, and how could we forget our lovely pink bridge? We were all thrilled when Marie Kay won the title of Prom Queen. Certainly any one of the princesses would have been an excellent choice!

The prom was a very formal affair - tuxedos and long gowns dominated the dance floor. It was the party to end our year with a BANG! At $40.00 per couple, the price was right too!

We hope that Kelly and Jeff have set the standard for many more amazing CCH Spring Proms to come.

track and field... london

Dave Benjamin 800m champion

"C.C.H. dedication pays dividend" as headlined in the London Free Press on May 9, was probably the most appropriate statement to capitalize what Catholic Central Track and Field was all about this year. From a coaching perspective, 1984 Track and Field was both a satisfying and exciting season, culminating with the Conference City Championship and the qualifications of a large contingent of athletes of O.F.S.A.A.

To excel at this level, a total commitment to goals and objectives is required. For our team, this entailed attendance at practices from January to June, often conducted in such obscure locations as hall stairs, cafeterias "sand dunes" and the Queens Ave. Freeway. It also required cold, rainy weekends in Windsor, Toronto and the thriving metropolis of Tillsonburg.

The acquisition of hardware, ribbons and titles was appreciated, but the most moving experience was to witness our growth as a team. The support each team member extended to another was evident throughout the season. It was this demonstration of co-operation and team spirit that contributed to such a successful and enjoyable season. I would like to thank Miss Regan, Mr. Reed, Laura Chalmers, Linda Leenders (managers) and the many parents who donated their expertise, time and friendship. They definitely lightened the load.

"Con" is a word of power. "We can do it" was our password this. Catholic Central's dominance in Track and Field has only just begun.

SENIOR PROM COMMITTEE

The Senior Prom Committee was the supreme driving force behind one of the best Prom's that CCH will see in a long time. The Heads of the committee were Jeff Kuchta and Kelly Blyndal, together they executed a super prom. The Prom committee: Bill Ford, Kelly, Jeff, Joanne Mazzotta, Jim Butterly, Joanne DePace, Mr. Barette, sold "CRUSADER CAPS" to raise monies to keep the cost of the prom down. They did it as well, the prom tickets were only forty dollars compared to other years when the price for a ticket was fifty. All the Prom committee can say is . . . the best is yet to come.

When You Find A Place

Carry It With You

On June 29th 1983, twenty daring adventurous and excited young rookies, accompanied by Fr. Joe Redmond, Sr. Anne Hawley and Max & Liz Heidel, stepped onto the bus which would take us to Cochrane and then by train to a spot in the woods, some 821.5 miles away from home. What we all soon would realize is that we were departing for a home away from home... Camp Oskiniko, a beautiful clearing of land, deeply nestled in the rugged woods of Northern Ontario. Surrounded on the one side by the Mighty Moose River, and all around by magnificent white pine, the breathtaking sunsets and the mysterious Northern Lights, our "home" was naturally beautiful.

Through much hard work and effort, we made our camp ready for the first contingent of Indian kids. The first camp was a time for most of us to get acquainted with the children, and try to get a taste of their culture and way of life. Trying to break through all the social barriers at times, proved challenging, but a simple smile or hug made it all worthwhile.

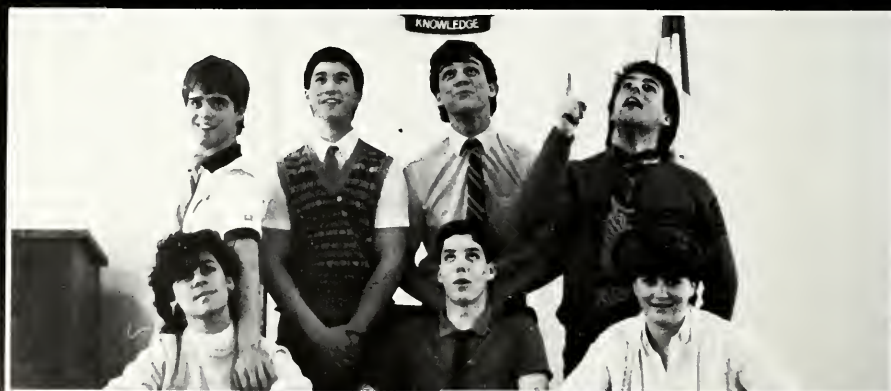

I think that the best times we had were the impromptu moments, like dancing in the cookhouse, or picking raspberries along the tracks. These were the times when we could open up to each other, and really be ourselves. This enabled us to create a strong bond of brotherhood. This was our community! Our camp was always alive with a sense of spirit, especially when everyone was gathered together for Mass in the canvas tee-poc, the centre spot of the camp. It was here that we all felt the true essence of what Camp Oskiniko was all about... Friendship! Laughter! and an Exchange of Culture! Good Luck M-94!
P.S. We would like to thank Ian Brunt and Jack Payne for finally putting all our minis at ease by revealing the true identity of Chicken & Ribs!

Yes! it's them, S.C. '84

"Say you guys, do you really think they can run a student's council?"

Now that my fifth year at C.C.H. is complete and my future hinges on the hope of University acceptance, I can look back on many great times at Catholic Central. With the exception of a few problems both big and small, the past year has been by far the best. Student Council is not only a great way to get involved but is also a great way to meet more people in the school. It is the people who make Catholic Central such an exciting place to spend your high school years. It is easy to take for granted the good friends or even mere acquaintances we make during high school. It is these people though, that we will remember about high school when we look through our yearbook next year, five years, or even twenty years from now.

Thanks to all those who helped out this year and special thanks to Jeff, Tony, Glen, Lee, Diane, and Andrew. It's been a blast!

People brought the little children to him, for him to lay his hands on them and say a prayer. The disciples turned them away, but Jesus said, "Let the little children alone, and do not stop them from coming to me; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs." Then he laid his hands on them and went on his way.

Matt 19:13-15

In memory of Tony Circelli who died in the summer of 1983.

MISSIONARY
oblates
OF MARY IMMACULATE

We chose to be Oblates after much prayer, thought, and guidance. Our choice was a choice for a life of service. We come from cities, small towns, and farms. We joined at different ages, with different educational backgrounds, and with differing life experiences.

WE ARE MEN WHO ARE AT THE SERVICE OF THE CHURCH — in missions (at home and abroad), in parishes, in retreat work, in schools, and wherever there are poor, wherever the Lord calls.

This yearbook could not have been even half as amazing if it weren't for the following people: Paulette Chase, our Winnipeg Yearbook connection, Fred Cudrey, the fellow with the Mercedes, Austin Muscat for his Nikon and his willingness to help out when we needed him, and of course for taking all of the club pictures! Who else now?... oh yes, Father Thompson for some really great Halloween sports shots, Joanne Mazzotta for the tremendous dedication to the bitter end, and for her help with the 13 writeups (we love you Jo!) Mr. Stranges for being so understanding when I missed Calculus for "various legitimate reasons", Mr. Fabre for always helping us out with red tape, Marka for the odd cheque now & then, Marka for a good time at the prom, John Paul for his sports shots (not the pole vaulter), Mom & Dad, of course, and thanks to all the people you thanked. But thanks mostly to you, my life-long buddy and pal!

ciao Kath

We're smilin' and I hope that you're smilin' too, 'cause, Crusader eighty-four's AMAZING! But none of this could have been done without the help of some special people. Thanks to Julie Moore for helping in every way possible and to Joanne Mazzotta who put together the amazing sports section. The mugs couldn't have been done without "The Girls" after school, so merci to you! Special thanks to Tony KASZA who was our main man behind the money (he's like the Godfather). The votes are in and the woman of the year is "MARG HEILAND!" what a gal! She really was a sweetheart, thanks Mrs. Heiland for all you have done and I love ya for your patience with deadlines, photographs and such... But thanks to you, Crusaders, because without you there would be no Crusader eight-four, no colour end sheets, no eight colour page spread, no sixteen extra pages and of course no memories of Catholic Central 1984. All the best in the eighties and remember BIG BROTHER IS WATCHING YOU! SIM

The Way We Were...

WELCOME TO THAT YEAR

With the development of television, and the technical advance which made it possible to receive and transmit simultaneously on the same instrument, private life came to an end. — George Orwell, Nineteen Eighty-Four
